SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AND DISCOURSES LAST EVENING.

.The forty-eighth anniversary of the American Seamen's Friend Society was held last evening in the West Twenty-third street Presbyterian Church (Rev. Dr. White's). Among the congregation were many of the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the merchants of New York and the other citizens of the netropolis interested in the welfare of seamen. The ies were crowded with ladies.

Mr. R. P. Buck, President of the society, made the spaning remarks, and then introduced the spening remarks, and then introduced the period of the life of the organization. Mr. Samuel H. Hall, Secretary, read the annual report. From this it appears forty-eight chaptains, missionaries, Bible and tract distributors, colporteurs and others have been aided (wholly or in part) from its treasury, and were located as follows:—At St. John, N. B., and on the Labrador coast, in the Scandinavian countries; in Belgium, at Antwerp: in France, at Havre and Marseilles; in Italy, at Genoa and Spezia; in China and Japan; in the Sandwich Islands; at Valparaiso, Chie; at San Francisco, Cal.; at Galveston, Texas; at New Orleans, La.; at Pensacola, Fia; Savancah, Ga.; Charleston, S. C.; Wilmington, N. C.; Norfolk, Va.; Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass., Rochester, Syracuse, Oswego and Bufalo, N. Y., on the lines of the Eric, and Belaware and Raritan canals, &c., and in the cities and vientities of New York and Brook'yn. The number of libraries sent out is 790, fof which 326 were new and 464 refitted) on vessels carrying 10,635 men; making the total number sent out since the work was inaugurated, seventeen years ago, 5,539, containing at least 282,000 volumes, and accessible, in their frequent reshipments, to 222,000 men. The whole number of libraries shipped in the United States Navy is 855, accessible at different times to 67,622 men. Nearly 1,000 conversions at sea are reported as having occurred in connection with this single agency. The Home, during the past year, has accommodated 2,034 boarders. These temporarily deposited with the Supermiendent, $34,669, of which amount, $17,559 were sent to relatives and friends; $3,118 were placed to their credit in the savings bank, and the balance returned to the depositors. The report makes mention of the dicease, within the past year, of Admiral Silas H. Stringham, United States Navy, and then Hon, Henry P. Haven, of Connecticut, Vice Presidents of the society at Honoluly, Sandwich Islands, during the past twenty-five years, then addressed the audience, and gave vivid descriptions Dr. Spaulding, who gave a brief of the life of the organization.

A NEWARK MEMORIAL.

round at the base of the liberty pole in Military Park, wark, N. J., on Saturday they discovered a marble on which was the following inscription :-

The citizens of Newark, in grateful commemoration of the lifteeth anniversary of American independence, have on this Fourth day of July A. D., 1826, deposited the stone as a foundation of a monumental memorial here to be erected; and when the dilapidation of time shall discover this inscription to future generations may the light of the Gospel illuminate the whole world.

G. GRANT & CO.

The subscribers to the foregoing were marble cutters who flourished in Newark half a century ago. The slab has long been buried out of sight and its where abouts unknown to c tizens generally.

COMPOSITORS' WAGES.

The Typographical Union has appointed a committee to consider the propriety of reducing the present price nposition paid by the publishers of evening pa-While all other artisans have suffered a reduction of wages the printers are receiving the same rates as of wages the printers are receiving the same rates as were paid during the war.

Those employed on evening papers favor the reduction, while the men having regular situations on morning papers do not, learing that they will be compelled to lower the rate.

It appears that, while the union men working in the daytime are receiving lorty-five cents per 1,000 ems, the publishers of weekly papers having non-union printers pay but thirty-five cents.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Shortly after five o'clock yester-lay afternoon the ferryboat Yorkville, while crossing from Ninety-second Preet to Astoria, ran into and upset the rowboat D. Hughes, of Greenpoint, containing four persons. Three of them were rescued by boatmen of a fishing smack, but the fourth was carried away by the tide and frowned. The police were unable to ascertain his name.

SUICIDE IN JERSEY.

Josiah Gross, of Porterville, Northampton county, Pa., hanged himself in a wood near Bloomfield, N. J., esterday morning. He was well dressed, but had only one cent in his possession. Coroner Osborne viewed the body and granted a certificate of burial. This re-fusal to recognize the new County Physician will likely lead to a conflict of authority.

ANOTHER INSANE WOMAN.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon Kate Carroll, a married woman, aged thirty-five years, of No. 441 Ninth street, was taken to Bellevue Hospital and confined in the cells. She is a seamstress, a native of Ireland, and is believed to be hopelessly insane.

IS IT A POLICEMAN'S CRIME?

A few days ago George Callahan, an oysterman, living at No. 4 Morris street, became involved in some disturbance, and was arrested. Arriving at the station house he appeared to be very ill, and complained bitteriy of having been kicked in the groin by the policeman. On Saturday he was removed to Believue Hospital for treatment, but died thirteen hours after his admission. Coroner Croker will hold an inquest.
